

Contact: Joe Pruitt
Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational,INC
Phone 270 791-2117
joepruitt@corvettehomecoming.com
www.corvettehomecoming.com
Facebook: Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational, Inc
Twitter: @bgcorvette

Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational,INC

Press Release

CORVETTE HOMECOMING AND CHEVY INVITATIONAL INC.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Bowling Green, KY, November 28, 2016: Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational,Inc .is excited to announce that it is moving to the National Corvette Museum in Bowling Green, Kentucky the home of the Corvette. The dates for the 36th annual event will be June 1, 2017 through June 3, 2017.

The Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational,Inc. is an annual event held in Bowling Green, Kentucky celebrating America's sports car, the Chevrolet Corvette. First held in 1981, it was created by two Corvette enthusiasts, Tom Hill and Sam Hall, in response to the assembly of Corvettes moving from St. Louis, MO to the Bowling Green Assembly Plant, which is currently the sole assembler of the car. In 2015 the Chevy Invitational was added to the event with great success.

The event features competitions in numerous Judged shows for Corvettes and Chevys along with informative seminars. The Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational,Inc. features numerous vendors, parade, National Corvette Museum tours,, auto and memorabilia auction, live music, women's events/vendors. The event offers an exclusive show called Sans Pareil (without equal) and Ultra Originals where the cars are at least 30 years old and 85% original. The event also has a Full Custom judged class.

Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational and The National Corvette Museum will maximize their impact on the area's tourism, local economy, and culture with this event.

Corvette Homecoming and Chevy Invitational, Inc. is proud to be locating to The National Corvette Museum in June of 2017.

For Immediate Release